This image may not be in the public domain in these countries, which moreover do not implement the rule of the shorter term. Côte d'Ivoire has a general copyright term of 99 years and Honduras has 75 years, but they do implement the rule of the shorter term. This is a faithful photographic reproduction of a two-dimensional, public domain work of art. The work of art itself is in the public domain for the following reason:

The author died in 1921, so this work is in the public domain in its country of origin and other countries and areas where the copyright term is the author's life plus 95 years or fewer.

You must also include a United States public domain tag to indicate why this work is in the public domain in the United States. Note that Mexico has a term of 100 years and does not implement the rule of the shorter term, so this image may not be in the public domain in Mexico. Côte d'Ivoire has a general copyright term of 99 years, but it does implement the rule of the shorter term.

Description: English: Former members of the Sonderkommando 1005 unit pose next to a bone crushing machine in the Janowska concentration camp in a photo taken by the Soviet war crimes investigation team called officially the "Extraordinary State Commission for ascertaining and investigating crimes perpetrated by the German–Fascist invaders and their accomplices". Soviet prosecutor Colonel Lev Smirnov testified in regards to the bone crushing before the Nuremberg Trials in February 1946 and submitted photos of the machines. According to Smirnov, "over 200 000 Soviet citizens" were murdered at Janowska.

A bone crusher from Janowska and other items such as a bar of soap made from human fat and gloves of human skin produced in the camps can be seen in the Museum of the Great Patriotic War in Kiev

Description: KZ Auschwitz-Birkenau, alte Frau und Kinder

Zentralbild/Repro, 28.6.1960 "Dokumentarfotos zu den Verbrechen des Judenmörders Eichmann. Für das Zusammenziehen der jüdischen Bevölkerung in Ghettos auf dem Gebiet der Tschechoslowakei und für den Transport zahlloser jüdischer Männer, Frauen und Kinder verschiedener Nationalitäten in die Vernichtungslager, wie z.B. Auschwitz-Birkenau, ist Judenmörder EICHMANN an führender Stelle mitverantwortlich gewesen. Die dokumentarischen Fotos gehören zu einer Anzahl Aufnahmen, die von dem aus Nordböhmen stammenden SS-Mann Bernhard WALTER mit Eichmanns Genehmigung in Auschwitz angefertigt wurden ["Auschwitz-Album"] - Selbst vor Greisen und Kindern machten die faschistischen Verbrecher vom Schläge Eichmanns nicht Halt. Hier Kinder und eine alte Frau auf dem Wege in die Todesbaracke (Auschwitz-Birkenau)."
